- Good attendance habits are strongly recommended to keep up with the classes. Diligent attendance will benefit all students, as the need to repeat choreography will be minimized and will aid the students gain confidence and respect the instructors' time as well as the other students' time. This is especially important in the weeks prior to performance,
- Punctuality is requested while attending classes as students who are more than 10 minutes late for class may be asked to observe the class. This is to protect them from injuries, which could occur due to not being properly warmed up.
- Students must have hair out of the eyes and wear stretchy clean clothes that are dance appropriate. No jeans, or jean shorts please.
